Dedication

TO ONE WHO LOVES TO TEACH

In deep appreciation for your personal friendship, for your wise counsel, for your unstinted service, as well as your whole-hearted participation in student activities we dedicate this book to you, Miss Kieth.

From The Principal

OYSTERS AND EAGLES AND BOYS AND GIRLS

The oyster has a rather firm hold on security and comfort. God built him a house, a shell for protection from certain enemies. When he's hungry he opens his shell and food rushes in. It's as simple as that.

But when God created the eagle He gave him no boundaries. "The sky was the limit." The eagle went and built his own house. He soared high to the highest mountain crag, where storms threaten him every day. For food he flies through miles of rain and snow and wind.

The eagle, and not the oyster, is the emblem of America.

If you like to think, remember the oyster and the eagle -- but concentrate on the eagle. Let's face it; life is hard work. Let's roll up our sleeves and get at it!

D. L. JONES

PRESENT AT ANNUAL BOARD MEETING

Dr. Clarence Omans, Chairman, Principal D. L. Jones, Secretary, Elder G. E. Hutches, Elder W. A. Nelson, Elder Herbert Helson, Homer Fellows, Larry Crandall, R. M. Harrison, O. J. Dunlap, D. B. Wildman, Fred Wiesner, Mrs. Ronald Simpson, Kenneth Strand, Dale Perkins, Joshua Swinyer, H. F. Roll, Elder A. K. Phillips, Elder E. E. Burkett

Mr. and Mrs. Jones at home

His home, the spot of earth supremely blest,
A dearer, sweeter spot than all the rest.

Montgomery

Mr. and Mrs. Guth at home.

To make a happy fireside clime
To wean and wife That's the true pathos and sublime
Of human life.

Burns

Miss Keith and Mother at home

Peace and rest at length have come
All the day's long toil is past;
And each heart is whispering,
"Home, Home at last."

Hood

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow at home

Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam
Be it ever so humble, there's no place like Home.

J. Howard Payne

Mr and Mrs. Myers at home

For a man's house is his castle.

Sir Edward Coke

Mr. and Mrs. Lee at home

By the fireside still the light is shining
The children's arms around the parents twining.
From Love so sweet, O who would roam?
Be it ever so homely, home is home.

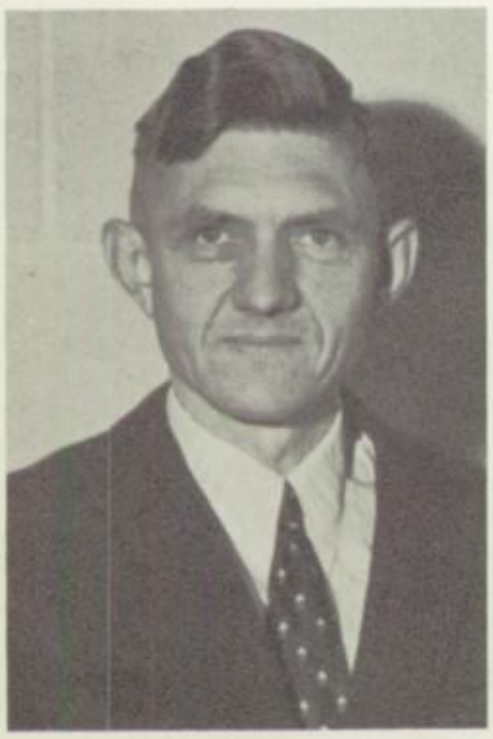
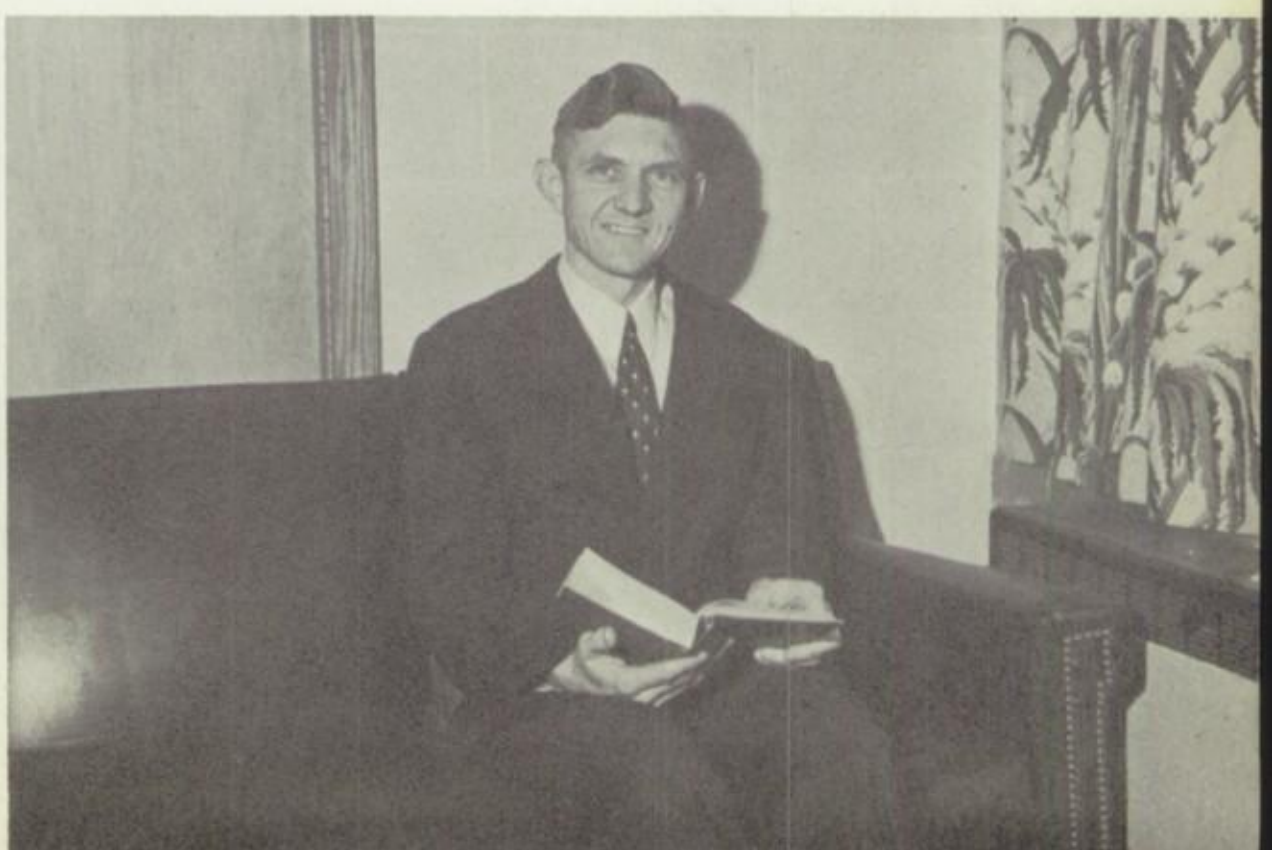
D. M. Mulock

The Howards at home
Happiness seems made to be shared.



Mr. Steinweg at home
The house of every one is to him as his castle and fortress, as well for his defence against injury and violence, as for his repose.

Sir Edward Coke



The Klines at home

A heaven on earth.

Class of 1954

Peggy Howard
ctical, clever, and jolly Her charms are many, faults few.

Lois Langs
She had a winning way and a joyful look. And ever finished what she undertook.

Beverley Seeney
A jolly girl chuck full of fun. She's always nice to everyone.

Virginia Carlson
With lots of pep and lots of fun. She's one that's liked by everyone.

Beverley Hammond
es may come and smiles go, but giggles go on ver.

Ruth Peck
It's nice to be natural when your naturally nice.

Gay Albright
Sometimes glad, sometimes sad, sometimes mischievous, but never bad.

Janet Workman
Her friends there are many; her foes, are there any?

Art Roberts
s he talk? Well, all of time. But that was r much of a crime.

Norman Curtis
He's the kind of person you are proud to call a friend.

Don Philo
A grin, a wink, a carefree jest. By things like these we know him best.

Lloyd Kellum
Small, but mighty is he.

Mr. Howard gains much gratification, Teaching Music Fundamentals and Music Appreciation

Miss Keith and Francais go together She'll speak French in any weather.
When to class flock students quick
She drills it in and makes it stick (?)

Who has the knowledge of debits and credits?
Who has the answer when we can't get it?
Who is it that seeks the truth?
It's none other than Mr. Guth.

Elder Winslow used this opportunity To teach students in Denominational History The Church's beginnings, the bearers of truth, An inspiring attainment for all B.C.A. youth.

Algebra Class

In algebra class, we try and try To find the values for x and y.
Whose the very one to make us see?
Of course! It's the teacher, Mr. Lee.
Then too, he teaches geometry,
And his hobby is photography.

Elder Winslow in first semester
History
Revealed the Holy Bible's thrilling mystery.
When assistance was needed Elder Steinweg stepped in To continue Hebrew History until the school's end.

One teacher whom we are proud to mention
Is none other than Mr. Myers In Woodworking Class he has close attention
As he teaches the boys the things they desire Custiodian of school, and driver of the bus,
He is dearly loved by all of us.

If of the past you want to know
Seek history class of Mrs.
Winslow.
Dates, places, people, events of old
In Miss Keith's class are foretold.
So, as you can easily see
An interesting class is World
History.

In the B.C.A. office her job is receptionist. Mrs. Kline's aim in Typing is to help train perfectionists.

Subduing and subdued, the petty strife,
Which clouds the color of domestic life:
The sober comfort, all the peace which springs From the large aggregate of little things,
On these small cares of daughter, wife, or friend, The almost sacred joys of home depend.

Miss Kamerer at home

Home is the resort of love, of Congratulations

Every One of You!

You know, neighbors can feel pretty proud of each other—when one of them has done something special. Well, the folks at Kellogg's think of you as a neighbor — and boys and girls, we're just plain proud of you. Proud of all the fine, intelligent work you've done.

So, if you'll let us spell it out again, like we said up there on the top of the page—CONGRATULATIONS! In fact, that goes double from the Kellogg Company.
